

World History
Map Tests
Region 1: North America
(Maps September 13; Test September 27)

Political

Countries & Capitals

- Canada: Ottawa
- Mexico: Mexico City
- United States: Washington, D.C.

Major Cities

- Canada: Calgary; Montreal; Quebec City; Toronto; Vancouver
- Mexico: Acapulco; Cancun; Tijuana; Veracruz
- United States: Atlanta; Boston; Chicago; Dallas; Denver; Detroit; Los Angeles; Miami; New York City

Miscellaneous: the Arctic Circle and the Tropic of Cancer

Physical

Land

- Canada: Rocky Mountains
- Mexico: Baja California, Yucatan Peninsula
- United States: Appalachian Mountains; Great Plains

Water

- Canada: Arctic Ocean; Baffin Bay; Great Slave Lake; Hudson Bay; Labrador Sea; MacKenzie River; St. Lawrence River; Saskatchewan River
- Mexico: Gulf of California; Pacific Ocean; Sierra Madre; Yucatan Peninsula
- United States: Atlantic Ocean; Bering Sea; Great Salt Lake; Gulf of Mexico; Mississippi River; Ohio River; Rio Grande

We start with North America because it is the most familiar of the seven regions. That means that it will also be the easiest to do. Keep that in mind. You may want to get a head start on October's map—Africa.

North America

POLITICAL

North America

PHYSICAL